

Press Release

Contact: Kathy Uglow
(814) 763-5269

Tree-ific!

Who	Crawford County Conservation District
What	Program about trees for youths
Where	Woodcock Creek Nature Center, 21742 German Rd., Meadville, PA
When	August 14, 2010
Why	Learn about trees

Hey kids—want to learn more about trees and have fun doing it? Join Mark Lewis, Service Forester for the Pennsylvania Bureau of Forestry, DCNR, and Kathy Uglow, Crawford County Conservation District, for a “Tree-ific” program on Saturday, August 14, 2010, from 10:00 a.m. - noon at the Woodcock Creek Nature Center. This event is in partnership with the NWPWA (Northwest Pennsylvania Woodland Association) and it is for children ages 5 and up. Anyone under 12 must be accompanied by an adult. Activities include a making a craft, a game and a tree walk.

There is no charge for the program but preregistration is required. Please call Kathy at 814-763-5269 to register or for more information. Event information is also available at <http://www.crawfordconservation.com>. Please let us know if you require special accommodations.

Directions to the Crawford County Conservation District/ Woodcock Creek Nature Center, 21742 German Road, Meadville, PA (formerly Bear Lodge): From Meadville, follow North Main Street (State Route 86) North; Turn Right on German Road just before the bridge and the intersection of Routes 86 & 198; Stay on German Road and follow the creek, bearing left at the "Y." The Nature Center is the last building (made of stone) on the left before Stainbrook Park.